Decision in U S District Court

[illegible]

United States District Court District of Oregon Monday February 21

In the matter of [illegible] Ouimette against whom a petition [illegible] of bankruptcy was filed on January 26 1870 In Bankruptcy

In this case there are two creditors who petition jointly The petition states that on November 30 1869 said Ouimette being indebted to the petitioners respectively in the sums of $1[illegible] and $141 [illegible] account [illegible] for goods sold and delivered to said Ouimette made and delivered to said petitioners his two promissory notes for said sums respectively payable to their several orders sixty days after the date thereof with interest at one per cent per month and that said petitioners are still owners and holders of said accounts and notes and that the sums aforesaid are respectively payable thereon That on or about December 15 1869 said Ouimette committed an act of bankruptcy In that, said Ouimette being then insolvent, did sell and deliver all his stock of goods, then used by him in his business of merchant at St Louis, in the District aforesaid the same being then and there of the value of $1 500 to Pierre & Mull of the place last aforesaid in consideration of the relinquishment of a debt of $1 [illegible]00 then due said Mull from said Ouimette with interest thereby to give a preference to said Mull, and with intent to hinder, delay and defraud his other creditors, and with intent to defeat and delay the operation of the Bankrupt Act —Wherefore the petitioners pray that Ouimette may be adjudged a bankrupt, etc

On February 3 1870, Ouimette appeared and answered the petition The answer is long and rambling Besides the specific denials of certain allegations in the complaint it contains two or more supposed defences to the petition but neither these denials or supposed defences are separately pleaded but on the contrary, from one continuous and mingled statement

At common law the defendant was confined to a single plea consisting of a single matter of defence (Gould's Pleading, 420) But this rule sometimes operating unjustly led to the enactment of the statute of 4 Ann C 16 Sec. 4, which provided that the defendants with leave of the court might plead as many several matters as he shall think necessary for his defence

In the construction of this statute it was held that it did not authorize the defendant to allege more than one defence in one plea In other words, that each plea must still be single as at common law (Gould's Pleading, 429-30), and that it did not extend to dilatory pleas (Ibid 431).

On this subject, the rule prescribed by the Code, in effect, coincides with the rule of the common law as modified by the statute of Ann. It provides that the answer shall contain a specific denial of each material allegation of the complaint controverted by the defendant and a statement of any new matter constituting a defence or counter claim also that the defendant may set forth by answer as many defences and counter claims as he may have, but they shall be separately stated and refer to the causes of action which they are intended to answer in such manner that that they may be distinguished (Civil Code 150 7)

After denying certain allegations in the petition respecting the indebtedness and the solvency of Ouimette and the commission of the act of bankruptcy, the answer "further alleges" that Ouimette "has property which he holds and owns in his own right over and above all debts and liabilities of the value of $2,000 " Then follows an allegation by way of "further answering said petition," to the effect that on January 5, 1870, at the request of the petitioners, Ouimette delivered to petitioners the notes of third persons then held and owned by said Ouimette for the aggregate sum of $285 26 principal, with interest from various dates within the year 1869, with ' the agreement that said petitioners should make enquiries as to whether said notes were collectable, and if so, they are to be received by said petitioners in payment of said notes of him, said Ouimette, to said petitioners ' and that said notes, with the exception of one for the sum of $52 26, with interest from March 16, 1869 ' were good and collectable'" and that said 'petitioners have never notified said Ouimette that said notes were not collectable, but have proceeded to collect said notes and have collected some portion of the same but what amount he is unable to state "

Then follows an allegation to the effect that on the day when the notes of the petitioners became due that Ouimette tendered to each of said petitioners the sum due on his note respectively in U S gold coin upon condition that said petitioners would deliver to said Ouimette said notes and the notes by him "deposited" with said petitioners but that said petitioners refused to deliver said Ouimette said notes or either of them and that said Ouimette is still ready to pay said sum upon the surrender of his said notes and deposits the same with the clerk of this court to be and remain a continuing tender upon the same conditions of the surrender of his said notes set forth in the petition and said notes deposited with said petitioners " As a conclusion it is then alleged that by reason of the facts aforesaid the petitioners have elected to receive the said notes deposited as aforesaid in payment of Ouimette's said notes in the petition set forth and that said notes are paid. Wherefore he prays that said petition may be dismissed, etc

The petitioners by their attorneys demur to all the allegations in the answer following the specific denials of the allegations in the complaint because said matter constitutes no defense to the proceedings in bankruptcy herein with special causes of demurrer also assigned

The allegation as to the value of the property which the defendant owns and holds is simply surplusage and immaterial and ought to be stricken out But it is no cause for demurrer Ouimette having denied the allegation that he was insolvent at the time of the sale of the goods to Pierre and Mull should have rested there Besides if it were proper to set up the value of his assets as compared with his liabilities to show thereby that he was not insolvent it should have been pleaded separately

The pleas of payment by the delivery of notes of third persons and of tender in cash after petition filed are run together as one story or transaction They are distinct matters and of defences distinct ones and should have been pleaded separately that is so that each one would stand or fall by itself without the aid of the other On this account this part of the answer should have been stricken out But this objection not having been taken for the purpose of this demurrer these defences or matters will be considered in this respect as if they had been properly pleaded

To maintain an action to have one adjudged a bankrupt it must appear from the petition that the party proceeded against owes debts provable under the Bankrupt Act to the amount of $300 and at least $250 thereof to the petitioner or petitioners and that such party has committed an act of bankruptcy The debt and the act of bankruptcy taken together constitute the cause of action The defence set up may go to either or both of these matters and there may be several defences to each but they must be separately stated

The matters pleaded in the answer as a tender of the petitioner's debts after petition filed are immaterial and might have been stricken out as irrelevant They constitute no defence to the action If as is alleged Ouimette is insolvent he has no right to tender or pay to these petitioners their debts in full It would be a fraud upon his other creditors Nor would the petitioners have any right to receive such preferred payments because having [illegible] the insolvency of Ouimette they would be acting in violation of the Bankrupt Act and run the risk of forfeiting their debts On the other hand if Ouimette did not commit an act of bankruptcy of which his insolvency is a material ingredient it matters not so far as this proceeding is concerned whether he was indebted to the petitioners or not or whether he tendered them the amount due then or not This is not an action [illegible] to collect a debt but to procure an adjudication of bankruptcy against Ouimette and therefore a plea of tender of the amount of the petitioners' [illegible] can under no circumstances be a defence [illegible] The allegation of the petition is that the party is not only indebted to the petitioners but that he has committed an act of bankruptcy with [illegible] equivalent in law to a fraud upon them [illegible] it is not sufficient answer to allege [illegible] tender you the amount of your debts

In the course of the argument counsel for Ouimette suggested that in the absence of any allegation to the contrary the court might presume that the petitioners were his only creditors and therefore a tender to them might be lawfully made and received But I do not think such a presumption would be according to the ordinary course of such matters and I therefore I ought not to be made In fact there are no other creditors and if that were so a plea of tender would be a good defence [illegible] on the plea should have contained an allegation to that effect The only ground upon which such a plea could be considered to constitute a defence would be that payment by the alleged bankrupt under such circumstances could neither prejudice or injure any one and therefore no one could complain of it But even then I do not think such a plea ought to be held to be a good defence The fact that there are no other creditors to be prejudiced by and complain of the payment cannot be presumed to be within the knowledge of the petitioners Before they accept the tender they must enquire concerning it and they may be mistaken Besides no understanding of the petitioners or proceeding between them and the alleged bankrupt upon such question could prevent third persons who might be creditors from asserting their rights as such

Treating this portion of the answer as frivolous and immaterial there remains to be considered the allegation, which in effect amounts to a plea of part payment in the promissory notes of third persons It will be observed that the plea does not state whether or not these notes are negotiable or whether or not they are endorsed by Ouimette to the petitioners For the purposes of the demurrer I will assume that the notes are negotiable and that they were so transferred to the petitioners as to authorize them to sue and collect them as owners

There is no question but what, with the consent of the creditor, payment of a pre-existing debt can be made in the promissory note of the debtor or that of a third person. But there is some disagreement in the decisions as to what is sufficient evidence of such consent.

In Massachusetts it is held that the delivery and acceptance of the note is sufficient evidence that it was received in payment, and it will be so determined unless it is clearly shown, that such was not the intention of the parties (5 Mass 299, 6 Mass, 143, 10 Mass 147, 2 Met 168)

In New York and other States and in the National Courts it is held that the mere delivery and receipt of the note do not constitute payment but it must also appear that the creditor expressly agreed to take it as payment Without such agreement being shown, the delivery of the note is only a conditional payment—a payment provided that the note is paid when it becomes due. It is, however, to be deemed an absolute payment if the creditor parts with or is guilty of negligence in presenting it for payment or the like, but it seems he is not bound to sue upon it (5 John., 68, 9 John. 310, 3 Wend. 67, 5 Wend. 85, 491, 6 Wend 659 12 How 225, 14 How, 240) The latter rule is the one which must prevail in this Court.

The delivery of the notes to the petitioners under the circumstances stated in the plea amounted to a conditional payment If the notes were paid or collected according to their tenor the debt of the petitioners would be paid and extinguished If they were not so paid or collected and the petitioners were not guilty of negligence in the premises, the delivery would amount to nothing

The conditions upon which the notes were taken by the petitioners as stated in the plea, differ, I think, in one particular from those which the law would attach to the transaction in the absence of any special agreement between the parties

The petitioners having agreed to take the notes as payment if they were collectable, thereby bound themselves to sue upon them if necessary to their collection An agreement to take notes as payment if they are or prove collectable implies something more than to so take them if they are paid It is equivalent to an agreement to collect them so far as the same can be done by the use of ordinary means and diligence

I know it was said in the argument, that the petitioners only agreed to take these notes as payment if upon enquiry they found them collectable—that is would admit or consent that they could be collected and that until it appears that such consent was given, the delivery of the notes has no effect upon the rights of the parties whatever Such may be the mere literal sense of the contract or condition as stated in the plea, but I do not think that it ought to be so interpreted or that the parties so understood it If the notes were not to be considered payment unless the petitioners assented to the conclusion that they were collectable they might, if they chose, refuse that assent when it was plain that the payers were solvent and abundantly able to pay them If the notes were in fact collectable whatever the petitioners might say or do in the premises from the date of their delivery they were so far payment of their debts

Now it is averred in the plea that over $200 of these notes are collectable, and that the petitioners have collected part of them If so, they are so far a payment of the petitioners' debts, and the balance being less than $100 would not be sufficient in amount to enable the petitioners to maintain this action This it seems to me is a good defense to the action or matter in abatement of it

It may be said that although the notes are collectable that the petitioners having now knowledge of the insolvency of Ouimette cannot collect them and apply the contents on their notes without thereby taking a preference contrary to the act and running the risk of forfeiting their debts to the other creditors But I do not think this argument sound If the money due on the notes is received by the petitioners at any time as between them and third persons in contemplation of law it is received at the time of the delivery of the notes the conditional payment In other words the actual receipt of the contents of the notes by the petitioners relates back to the conditional payment and converts it into an absolute one The question of preference then in the receipt and collection of these notes by the petitioners would have to be determined by the facts as they existed when the conditional payment was made If as between the petitioners and third persons the former were justifiable in receiving these notes when they did in payment of their debts then they became the owners of them and their right to collect and receive the money on them at any subsequent time, cannot be affected by the fact that Ouimette has since become insolvent or that they have since learned or have good reason to believe that he was then insolvent

The facts stated in the plea show a part payment of the petitioners debts and the sum remaining due being less than $250 does not enable the petitioners to maintain this action The plea is therefore a good defence to it and the demurrer must be overruled

If the conditional payment has in fact turned out to be no payment by reason of the notes proving worthless or uncollectable notwithstanding the due diligence of the petitioners they should reply to the plea and on the trial of the issue produce the notes and surrender them to Ouimette

It is not necessary to more than notice the allegation of the plea that the petitioners by refusing the alleged tender then elected to take the notes as payment At that time the petitioners were not at liberty to receive the notes in payment than the cash On the argument counsel for Ouimette made the point that the petitioners could not maintain this action because it was brought before their debts were due But this objection if made at all should have been made by demurrer to the petition However I am satisfied that the objection is not tenable as a reference to the statute will show By section 39 of the Bankrupt Act it is provided that any person * * * may be adjudged a bankrupt on the petition of one or more of his creditors the aggregate of whose debts provable under this act amount to at least $250 Section 19 provides [illegible] debts due and payable from the bankrupt at the time of the adjudication of bankruptcy and debts then existing but not payable * * * may be proved [illegible] against the estate of the bankrupt

These provisions seem to settle the question The debts of the petitioners although not then due existed and before the adjudication of bankruptcy and were therefore provable debts Being provable debts they were sufficient to maintain the petition An order will be entered overruling the demurrer with leave to the petitioners to reply upon the payment of $5 costs

The Governor of Louisiana has been explaining how it happens that the Legislature is corrupt. The wealthiest portion of the community are constantly engaged in the work of bribing the members The Governor declared that he had been offered 50,000 to sign one particular bill, and another $50 000 to assist the "Nicolson Pavement Bill" which he vetoed The leading men of the State instead of assisting him [illegible] corruption, were the most active agents in all kinds of dirty work.

The very newest thing from France is an artificial wet nurse. Monsieur N[illegible], of Vevay, has discovered, invented, or compounded an article of food for infants which he calls lacteal farina It is composed of perfectly pure milk evaporated in a vacuum at a low temperature, of bread which has been subjected to a high temperature and of sugar Mixed in a certain proportion these produce a food which is said to be identical in chemical ingredients with the infant's natural nourishment. It is now proposed to add an automatic feeder so that it will be only necessary to consign the babe to the tender embrace of the machine, fill the tank with lacteal farina connect a hose with the valve opening outward place the end within the reach of the babe and leave the rest to instinct and suction This of course would dispense with nursing nursing bottles spoon gruel and all their attendant evils at once and consequently a large increase in the crop of aristocratic infants is confidently predicted With a small washing drying and spanking apparatus attached, the nursery outfit would be complete

A London correspondent of the New York Times tells us that American credit has not been as high in England for many years as now The large amounts recently purchased are not on speculation but for permanent investments and the entire debt could be placed here, and its entire interest paid here if it were for the interest of America to become tributary to that extent to English capitalists But for the Erie difficulties it would be the same with railways It is aggravating, no doubt to be contributing some millions every year to the income of the British aristocracy but there is another side of the question Every such investment [illegible] every such relation of borrower and lender is a bond of peace An Englishman who has a hundred thousand pounds in the three per cents of his own Government is interested to that amount in its prosperity If he buys the same quantity of United States stock his interest in the American Government becomes twice as great. ...e the repeal of the Sunday law in Cali... the lower class of theatrical entertain...ments are in full blast every Sunday evening. The bill was pushed through upon the use of removing restrictions upon innocent amusements, but as was foreseen many public theatres remain closed on Sunday evenings, while melodeon hall performers make Sunday evening the principal evening of the week. It is of course unnecessary to say that this action of the Legislature was taken for political effect alone.

Judge B. F. Dennis, of Washington Territory, who has been removed from office for political infidelity to the Republican party steps out rather ungracefully. He publishes a "card" in an Olympia paper in which he lugubriously says: "I leave the office with no regrets save one and that is—that under a free government the tenure of such an office should depend on the manner in which the incumbent votes at a general election." The Judge evidently has been brought to feel that under President Grant the way of the political transgressor is decidedly hard.

We entirely agree with an evening contemporary that such a grant of lands should be obtained from Congress as will aid in the construction of a west side railroad. Justice to the west side and a regard for the present interests and future development of the State demand that such assistance shall be given. Nor have we any doubt that it will be obtained. It is important, however, that some plan of action in the matter be fixed upon, and adhered to consistently. We hope those representing west side interests will not allow themselves to be distracted with conflicting propositions. We are not likely to get any thing until we first settle upon what we want and then go after it.

School Funds for Sectarian Uses.

A Committee of the Union League Club, of New York have made a report upon the diversion of the public moneys of New York City from the legitimate objects of political government to sectarian purposes. They say that the evil began a short time ago under the specious form of begging from the city treasury a few dollars for some deserving charity, controlled and owned by some one of the several hundred religious sects into which the people are divided. It has in a few years made such gigantic strides that it now abstracts from the city treasury of the money raised by general taxation, half a million dollars annually; and uses the greater part of this sum to destroy the system of public schools. The Committee go on to say:

We have no State Church in New York, yet the appropriations and donations of our City Government to certain religious sects and their peculiar institutions exceed those of any other city in Christendom.

GIFTS TO THE ROMAN CATHOLICS.

In addition to this, in 1866, for $1 a year the City Government gave to the Archbishop of this sect half a block of ground on Madison and toward, Fourth avenue, worth now $200,000. In 1867 they gave to the same sect the fee of a whole block of ground running from Fifth to Fourth avenues, and from Fiftieth to Fifty first streets, by changing a lease into a fee, for the sum of $83 32, and then, in 1864, paid this same sect $24,000 for the privilege of extending Madison avenue across this block, and also made this sect a donation of $8,928 86 to pay all assessments on this block for opening Madison avenue. A moderate estimate of the present value of this block of ground is $1,500,000.

In 1846 they gave this same sect, for $1, 450 feet of the Fifth avenue end of the block of ground adjoining the last and between Fifty first and Fifty second streets; and then, in 1857, for $1 a year rent, gave this sect the rest of this block, thus practically donating the whole block running from Fifth to Fourth avenues, which block is estimated to be worth another million and a half dollars. The City Government has thus given $3,200,000 worth of real estate to a single sect for sectarian purposes.

Now, if the other religious sects were each treated by our City Government with like liberality, the city of New York would in a few years become the very paradise of religious corporations for they would have absorbed into their dead hands, (Mortmain,) either by donation or taxation, all the estate, real and personal, in this city.

We have brought forward these alarming facts in no spirit of hostility to true religion, nor to any church, or political party as such. But exclusively in the character of American citizens, we call upon our fellow-citizens, irrespective of sect or party, to oppose, in all lawful ways, taxation for sectarian purposes.

NO SECT SHOULD BE SUPPORTED AT THE PUBLIC EXPENSE.

Each religious sect has an equal and perfect right in our free land to as many and as magnificent churches and sectarian schools, monasteries, nunneries and asylums as it chooses to pay for, but to take money from the public treasury for sectarian purposes is not right; and especially not, when by so doing we are virtually destroying the very nurseries of universal education and of good citizens—to wit: our Free Common Schools. The sole effect and real object of the tenth section of this statute, is to make the people of this city, out of the public money raised by general taxation, pay the expense of teaching the special and peculiar tenets of certain religious sects. In other words, it is the entering wedge of a determined effort to destroy our system of Free Common Schools, and upon its ruins to build up a State Church and put the whole subject of education under the control of religious sects.

Appended to the above is a table of moneys voted from the Public Treasury of the city of New York for sectarian institutions in 1869, giving the name of each church or religious society, and the amount. From this table we arrive at the following:

SUMMARY OF AMOUNTS VOTED TO EACH DENOMINATION

Roman Catholic	$412 062 26
Protestant Episcopal	29 336 09

Baptist	2, 60 54
Methodist Episcopal	3 073 83

OREGON

The Jacksonville Age states that Jesse Applegate will soon commence to survey the passes east and south of Rogue River Valley to lower Klamath Lake, for the Oregon Central Railroad route.

The Farmer states that some of the flax seed introduced in this State from California is very foul with the seeds of noxious and dangerous weeds, and care should be taken to sow none of this description.

The Albany Register states that Messrs Moore Smith & Co of Harrisburg are having their fine flouring mill entirely overhauled and new machinery added and when finished it will have probably double its former capacity for turning out flour.

The Marion County Farmers Club has adopted a resolution by which the members agree to apply every possible means to the extermination of ground squirrels. Caution was given against persons inhaling steam from grain poisoned to feed the vermin.

The News says that the project of cleaning out the drifts in the Santiam river below Scio is being agitated. That paper claims that the river would be navigable for small boats to that place during the winter months. And even if this should be found impracticable, the cleaning out would prevent the river from overflowing its banks in times of high water.

The Farmer, in an article advising farmers what kind of wheat to sow, says that the Sonora wheat and Noe Island wheat make inferior flour, while the old Oregon white winter wheat has no equal for fall sowing and makes flour which stands high among the superior brands. The Australian Club wheat and White Chile wheat are each commended, especially for spring sowing.

The Chief of Police of San Francisco has given orders for the enforcement of the ordinance against discharging firearms in the city limits.

The California Legislature has passed an act to convert the Fire Department of San Francisco into a political organization. Efficient men have been legislated out of office for the sake of putting Democrats in.

The Olympia Transcript states that the case of J. R. Smith, sentenced by the Supreme Court to be hung in April will be appealed to the Supreme Court of the United States. This is the first case of the kind that has been sent up to that court from the Territory.

A map has been published delineating the proposed route of the Southern Pacific, or as it is styled on the map, The Southern Trans Continental Railroad. The map traces the route of the road from Memphis Tennessee through the El Paso to San Diego.

A bill has been introduced in the California Legislature offering beautiful premiums for the successful introduction of steam plows, capable of turning forty acres in a day. The amount of premiums offered for ten plows, to be put in operation within three years, is $30,000.

The San Jose Mercury learns that the Jesuit Fathers of the Santa Clara College intend to erect next Summer a main college building, the cost of which will not be far from three hundred thousand dollars. The plans and specifications are now in the hands of the Fathers. They were prepared by a San Francisco architect, at a cost of one thousand dollars.

The Humphrey Brothers are tunneling the Rocky mountains at Silver Bow. They have penetrated 1,600 feet, and have 1,300 feet yet to tunnel. A force of 48 men, who work in eight hour shifts, labor day and night. The gigantic enterprise will be completed in a few months, and the owners will then carry their great ditch through it to supply the extensive and rich mines of the western slope.

The San Jose Mercury of the 5th inst gives the subjoined item: During the dense fog of Wednesday night, immense flocks of wild geese hovered over the city, seemingly attracted by the glare of the gaslights. The fog was so dense that it was thought they were unable to see their way, and hence demoralized and "bothered entirely." They kept up a constant cackling and seemed to be holding a Democratic convention.

The Cincinnati Gazette thinks that "Down East" and "Out West" are very uncertain localities, since the statement by Mr McIntyre, the agent of the Treasury Department in Alaska, that the mouth of the Columbia river is about the centre of the United States, east and west, and that it is no further from Portland, Maine, to Portland, Oregon, than from Astoria to the latter State to Attu, the most westerly of the Aleutian group of islands, which are a part of the Alaskan purchase.

John C. Cremoney, editor of the S F Commercial Herald, and a contributor to the Overland Monthly, visited Stockton a few days since, when the Independent said that Major Cremoney still retains the martial bearing, the fire, the spring and apparently all the vigor of the days when he almost unaided did all the editorial work of a leading San Francisco daily, taught a French class, a Spanish class, and a class in fencing, and was yet half dead with ennui, and sighed for some means of turning his leisure moments to account.

A White Pine paper says: "Our people buy Chicago butter, hams, boots and shoes, sugars and coffee," clothing and liquors, "at a cheaper rate, at a better profit to the dealer, than the California article of the same kind can be obtained. As far west as Reno, at least, every town, to some extent, trades at Chicago and all manufactured articles can be bought there at less price than at San Francisco, for the reason that the raw material is less and labor cheaper. Many of the dealers in furniture are buying their whole stock East and sell at prices defying competition from those buying West.

INDUSTRIAL ITEMS.

The salmon berry, a specie of the raspberry, which flourishes in Oregon, possesses a peculiar characteristic, which, according to the Hearth and Home, has hitherto been overlooked by botanists—viz that the stems are perennial instead of biennial, as all other known species of this plant are. A gentleman has sent several of these plants to the editor of the above named journal, with a view of having them propagated at the East. A statement accompanied the plants, noticing the above mentioned peculiarity, and also the fact that they grow to a very large shrub. A section of one of the stems is figured in the Hearth and Home.

Of late years says the Prairie Farmer, the old way of cutting back the limbs of trees to be planted has been abandoned in Europe. Now the limbs are not cut back, but only such limbs removed as are too close. The middle limb and four or five others are left in their natural state. The second year these limbs are cut back to about half of their length. The result is that soon after their planting in spring, leaves appear at the top of the branches, and by their aid new, small rootlets are generated earlier than otherwise, and that the trees in the second year form stronger wood than if they had been cut back the first year.

At the recent annual meeting of the Milk Producers Convention, in Boston, the directors reported that from the best information they could obtain, they were satisfied that not less than 45 per cent of the milk sold in that city was manufactured by adulteration. In Switzerland, when a dealer is found guilty of adulterating his milk, he is condemned to no less than eighteen months' imprisonment and the loss of civil rights. The Swiss pride themselves upon the quality of their milk, and take these precautions to maintain its reputation. In Paris, when a man is detected in watering milk, he is liable, beside the other punishment inflicted upon him, to have a notice of his dishonesty posted up on his place of business for a series of years. It would be well if we had some such laws in this country.

Cows, hogs and other animals are frequently known to chew bones, leather, etc. The reason of this extraordinary appetite or craving was recently asked at a meeting of the Farmers Club in New York. In answer it was suggested that certain elements were doubtless wanting in their food which bone dust would supply. Acting upon this belief, in Central New York there are manufactories where bone dust is prepared especially for stock, and sold to dairymen for this purpose. There is a bone disease sometimes prevalent in the Eastern States for which bone dust is occasionally sprinkled in the field where the cattle feed. In districts in England where they feed hogs on whey exclusively the bones of the animals are said to be sometimes so small they cannot stand, and this is due to the want of bone making material in their food. It is doubtless for want of a similar supply in the food of cows that they go for the bones and brick bats.

An ice producing machine has been invented the action of which is based on the principle of producing cold by the expansion of atmospheric air which has been first condensed by means of mechanical power. The machine requires no chemicals, nothing being used in them but water and atmospheric air. They may be worked by steam water or wind and they produce from 100 to 1,000 pounds of ice per hour, according to size, at a cost of from 5 to 10 cts per 100 lbs, this difference resulting from the varying prices of fuel and the mode of working them. They may also be employed to cool rooms, cellars, theatres, hospitals, compartments of ships etc. The principle of the operation of these machines is the same which often gives much annoyance to miners who ventilate their mines by forcing in air through long pipes. The pressure under which this is forced leads to such an expansion at the outlet of the pipe that ice often accumulates so rapidly as to completely close up the outlet or at least greatly impede the egress of the air.

A Michigan man, while walking a street in East Saginaw, was struck in the face by one of a small flock of flying pigeons and both fell. The man had his cheek torn, one tooth knocked out and several loosened. The pigeon was killed.

In California slang a geologist is a "rock sharp," a mineralogist a "crystal sharp," a botanist a "weed sharp," a naturalist a "bug sharp," or a "toad sharp." A quartz sharp is a man who understands ores.

The latest proposition that we have seen is that made by Harper's Weekly to introduce a special caboose on evening trains for drunken passengers.

ALASKA

The Alaska Times strongly opposes the proposition to let the fur seal business to the highest bidder. It also strenuously insists upon a civil government, and puts the case in this way:

General Thomas estimates that it costs the national exchequer $1,000 for every soldier in this Territory. If that be so, the expenses are five times more than what they would be under a civil administration. Anent this subject we would direct the interested attention of the General Government as well as a discriminating public. Place two gunboats on the Alaska waters one for the northern and western and the other for the southern coasts and all the companies in the Territory except two can be safely taken away. Remove the troops from Kodiac and Tongass, leave one full company at Sitka and divide another company between Wrangle and Kenay, with the aid of civil officers the two gunboats and two companies of soldiers is all that is required.

The enforcement of such a measure would be productive of many benefits generally and effect considerable saving to the public treasury. Give Alaska a civil government and the work of progress will begin and colonization will ensue, industry, trade and commerce will unite and thrive. The Government must admit that every citizen is guaranteed protection by law and enjoys civil liberty in Alaska as in New Hampshire or any where else in the Union.

A Cincinnati woman who had received from the Relief Union an unfashionable pair of shoes was equal to the emergency. She promptly returned them with the remark that she had made a mistake and wanted No. 4's and the request "Please give me a finer pair and the tops high, for my daughter wears her dress short."

[illegible] evening at the parlor of the American Exchange Mr John Nation late President of the Willamette Iron Works was presented with an elegant Howard silver watch and chain by the employees of the works. Mr Stout, on behalf of the donors made the presentation in a neat little speech saying: "I have a duty to perform this evening in behalf of those here who are associated with you which gives me great pleasure. The employees of the Willamette Iron Works desire to present to you this watch as a token of their regard for you. In separating from them but temporarily as they hope they feel it due to you that some public action should be taken by them in recognition of your services in connection with the material interests of Oregon. We recognize in you the pioneer of the manufacture of iron machinery in Oregon. The donors desire me to say, that my own observation prompts me to do that few if any have done more in developing the interests of our State than yourself. Your assurance that your absence will be brief deprives our separation of its regret and you leave us with our best wishes and prayers for a safe return." To this Mr Nation made a brief and fitting reply thanking the donors not only for the intrinsic value of the gift but for the kind feelings which it evidenced on their part toward him. He would wear the gift while he lived and thought he should never look at its face without recalling the pleasant faces of those around him on this occasion and the agreeable association he had enjoyed with those laborers who had united to give him this token of kind regards. The watch on the outer case bears this inscription: "To Mr John Nation late President and Supt of W. I. Works, by the Employes, Portland Feb 21 1870." The subscribers to the purchase, are W C Wilcox, J J Lewis, Wm Wetzel, C Billis, Al Zeiber, J Clayton, J B Johnstone, Wm Bell, A Foster, J Gaffney, A Dierdorff, Geo Wilcox, John Lewis, E A Quinn, Chas McDonald, Horace Brown, A H Jones, Wm Stephenson, Wm Healy and W A Holbrook. After the presentation there were of course, some toasts and accompanying cheers, and, altogether, the affair was a very pleasant one to all concerned.

A BEAUTIFUL PICTURE.—By the steamer Ajax Mr Ezra St. John of this city received a beautiful lithographed National Eight-Hour Picture, from the House Carpenters Eight Hour League of San Francisco. The donors in a note, say the picture was gotten up by the league to promulgate the law of "eight hours" as well as to show our appreciation for the law as passed by Congress, and its proper construction as defined by President Grant in his Proclamation. In the top centre is the American Eagle bearing in his beak a scroll in which is printed the eight hour law as passed by Congress, and [illegible] this in the centre is the Proclamation by President Grant, declaring that the law does not contemplate any reduction of wages to employees of the United States on account of the reduction of hours of labor. On the left is a type of an [illegible] Labor surrounded by the various [illegible] and appliances used or directed by this class of our citizens. On the right is a picture of Justice and her scales, in which are "Capital" and "Labor" evenly balanced. The [illegible] to sell [illegible] to order at the very cheap figure of $1 50, or if 50 or more be ordered, at $1 00 [illegible] being only desirous of getting back the cost of the engraving. Mr. St. John [illegible] to the Odd Fellows Hall Association and the [illegible] will have it elegantly framed and hung in their new hall. The performance was one of the best of the season, the [illegible] being "The Married Rake," a very laughable farce, and the excellent little domestic drama of Dot. Mrs. Bates was particularly happy in both characters—Mrs. Trictrac and Little Dot. [illegible] and Vinson were as usual well up and did themselves credit. Miss Manderville's personation of "Susan Twist" in the farce and "[illegible] Bertha" in the drama, were excellent [illegible] by that young lady [illegible] we have seen. Mr Noble's "Stranger" in Dot was very good, also, and Barry's "Tilly Slowboy" was [illegible] laughable. All we have to say is that the troupe gave us a splendid farewell. The theater going public will unite in the hope that their absence will not be a long one.

PHOTOGRAPHIC VIEWS.—Per last steamer the Portland Library received the following photographic views of Oregon scenery, taken by C. E. Watkins: Multnomah Falls, Upper Cascades, Castle Rock, Mt. Hood and the Dalles, Cape Horn, Island in the Columbia, Willamette Falls, Rooster's Rock, The Tooth Bridge, The Rapids, The Passage of the Dalles, Cape Horn, View of New York, and an elegant oil painting of Niagara Falls. These views have all [illegible] by the Association. In addition to [illegible], the library has also an oil painting of the Niagara Falls and a bird's eye view of New York.

BRICK MAKERS.—We have heretofore made some mention of a new brick making machine set up by Messrs. Molthrop & Ripley, of this city. We learn that they have established their works for making brick on Columbia Slough, just below the mouth of Lake River, on the lands of Captain C. H. Reed. They will employ about twenty-five men during the brick making season. The machine will turn out bricks more rapidly than any we have ever seen in use. The proprietors we believe, have already contracted several hundred thousand in this city.

PLENTY OF ROOM.—There has been some impression abroad that there will not be room enough in the Armory for the Odd Fellows' ball on the 1st proximo but we are requested by the Committee of Arrangements to say that Philharmonic Hall has been engaged also and that the festivities of the evening will go on at the same time at both places should the attendance be large enough to make such an arrangement [illegible] to the guests. There need be no fear about room—there will be plenty of it.

THE GREGORYS.—The famed Gregory family consisting of gymnasts, acrobats, pantomimists, contortionists etc, with a troupe of trained animals is announced to appear at Oro Fino Theater to-night. We know nothing of course of the [illegible] performance except what we have seen in the press where they have exhibited. It is said that they drew immensely at New York and San Francisco or wherever they have appeared.

They will employ about twenty-five men during the brick-making season. The machine will turn out bricks more rapidly than any we have ever seen in use. The proprietors, we believe, have already contracted several hundred thousand in this city.

PLENTY OF ROOM.—There has been some impression abroad that there will not be room enough in the Armory for the Odd Fellows' ball on the 1st proximo; but we are requested by the Committee of Arrangements to say that Philharmonic Hall has been engaged, also, and that the festivities of the evening will go on at the same time at both places, should the attendance be large enough to make such an arrangement necessary or agreeable to the guests. There need be no fear about room—there will be plenty of it.

BRIEF MENTION.—The telegraph line was down yesterday.

A gentleman is in town to contract for the sale to our butchers of fat beef from Ochoco.

The "Shoo Fly" hat is a sensation just out. It don't "bodder" us any.

A considerable amount of the freight per steamer Ajax is marked to merchants up the valley.

The material for the Plaindealer newspaper at Roseburg, came up on the Ajax.

THE GREGORIES.—The famed Gregory family, consisting of gymnasts acrobats, pantomimists, contortionists, etc., with a troupe of trained animals, is announced to appear at Oro Fino Theater to-night. We know nothing, of course, of the quality of the performance, except what we have seen in the press where they have exhibited. It is said that they drew immensely at New York and San Francisco, or wherever they have appeared.

PORTLAND LIBRARY.—The following new books have been added to the Portland Library: Four Years in the Pacific, 2 volumes, Hon Frederick Walpole; Geological Survey of California, 2 volumes, J. D. Whitney; Heber's Poetical Works; Harris' Insects Injurious to Vegetation; Dante's Inferno; Familiar Lectures on Scientific Subjects, Sir John Herschel; Colorado River of the West, by Jos. C. Ives.

TO DAY.—This is the 138th anniversary of the birth day of George Washington. It will be celebrated by a parade of the Washington and Emmet Guards of this city, and a ball under the auspices of the former at their Armory this evening. There will also be a commemorative National temperance meeting at the Court House, to be addressed by a number of our most distinguished fellow citizens.

ALL RIGHT.—We are pleased to learn that Mr Richardson's little boy, who was burned by a powder explosion a few days since, is recovering rapidly, with his eye-sight wholly unimpaired and his face will scarcely show a trace of the burn. It was a narrow but fortunate escape.

AGROUND.—The tugboat ran the bark Edward James aground at Swan Island bar the other night, by getting out of the channel. She ran her nose on so hard that about a hundred tons will have to be taken out into lighters. There was no lack of water in the channel.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—DEADY, JUDGE.—Proceedings of yesterday: In the matter of I. H. Ouimette in bankruptcy; demurrer to answer overruled and cause dismissed by petitioning creditors.

John Catlin, Assignee &c. vs. J. R. Foster; judgment for plaintiff for $4 5 98 and the costs in accordance with finding of Court.

CIRCUIT COURT—UPTON, JUDGE.—Proceedings of Monday 21.

State of Oregon vs James Murphy; sentenced to confinement in the county jail for 30 days.

State of Oregon vs Wm Sweeney; verdict of jury "guilty" of assault; sentence to be pronounced on Wednesday.

INSPECTOR APPOINTED.—Capt William Dierdorff has been appointed Inspector of Hulls for the district of Portland Oregon, vice John H Couch, deceased. His commission has arrived and the board of Inspectors is now full. No better appointment could have been made.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT—DEADY, J.—Proceedings of Monday Feb 21. John R. Lamb et al vs G. W. Vaughn; argument on the demurrer to the cross bill. Hill and Thayer for complainants; Chapman and Strong for defendants.

IN A NEW LINE.—We invite attention to the card under "Now To Day" of Messrs Russel & Ferry, Real Estate and Collecting Agents. They may be relied upon as energetic and correct business men.

STICK.—We call attention to the advertisement of the lubricating compound called "California Axle Grease."

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The steamship Ajax will sail for San Francisco at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

BALL.—Everything is in readiness for a tip top, good time to-night at the Washington Guard's Armory.

PERSONAL AND POLITICAL.

Henry Clay Dean is making repudiation speeches in Iowa.

The Richmond Dispatch pointedly says that a political quack cannot and shall not be the dux of the Virginians.

New York merchants complain that A T Stewart is trying to break down the market for prints by heavily underselling.

John Fulgate, of Jefferson, Ohio, is the oldest inhabitant of the State. He is 105, and was too old to serve in the army in 1812.

Since coming into power, Gov Scott, of South Carolina, has sold for the owners about 40,000 acres of land in the State to freed slaves.

Some of the Connecticut papers are just discovering that the State makes too frequent changes in its Representatives in Congress. Many of the States do.

In July next, George Francis Train will take his two sons, aged 10 and 12 years, now at the Poughkeepsie Military School, in a voyage round the world via San Francisco.

The New York Tribune says that after Prince Arthur left his seat in Trinity Church Sunday, a number of young ladies rushed there in order to sit where a live Prince had been sitting.

More than forty years after the pocket of the late Judge Richard Fletcher, of Massachusetts, was robbed of twenty five cents, the thief sent back the money with compound interest.

Daniel Webster informed a wonder awed "circle" in New York, the other evening, through a "medium," that his chief regret in dying was that he had not the opportunity to revise his Dictionary.

Senator Sumner states publicly that General Sickles' official dispatches and correspondence exhibit extraordinary ability, diplomacy, and statesmanship, and stamp him as one of our ablest representatives abroad.

In a card to the New York papers, Madame Anna Bishop (Schultz) states that her domestic relations are not unhappy, and that there is not a solitary particle of truth in the report that she has applied for a divorce.

Ohio proposes to give $5,000 for a monument to General William Henry Harrison, and Maryland $25,000 to furnish its Governor's mansion. Thus are to be satisfied the claims of a dead President and a living Governor.

Ohio has now in its capitol sixteen portraits in oil of its Governors, the latest acquisition being a portrait, nearly full length, of Salmon P Chase, presented by one of the natives, the largest and among the best in the collection.

The New Mexico Legislature has adopted a State Constitution, which will be submitted to the popular vote on the first Monday in October. Under the new Tax and Funding law the Territory warrants have advanced from 25c. to 50c on $1.

Gov. Merrill, of Iowa, is preparing a special message to the Legislature on the Wisconsin and Fox Rivers waters route from the Mississippi to Lake Michigan, and water communication with the Atlantic seaboard. A long memorial to Congress, on the same subject, is now before the Legislature.

SPRING STYLES.—Meussdorffer has received by steamer Ajax, a large number of new styles of Hats and Caps, among which are the Hub and the Shoo Fly Hats, which are both very stylish.

Why does every agent of a rival sewing machine, specially attack the GROVER & BAKER? Because it is their greatest rival, and its competition impossible to withstand. WM CURRIER & Co., Agents.

GO TO STONE'S, on Front street to buy your Silver ware. Silver spoons forks, butter knives, &c., &c., are the cheapest in the end, because they will last a lifetime; and then Stone sells So Cheap. He also has a fine lot of plated as well as solid silver ware.

RAILROAD MATTERS are very likely to be lively this spring. The East Side Company will engage a large force of men to complete their road to Albany, and the West Side Company will, very probably, build a portion of their road in order to obtain a land grant to facilitate the building of their line to McMinnville. Kohn & Fishel are keeping up with railroad times. Their stock of spring goods coming across the continent by rail will be the largest and finest stock of Clothing ever imported in this State. Their stock in store now is offered very low to make room for large arrivals. They are manufacturing the neatest Boys' Suits and always have on hand a large stock of the same which are offered at lowest figures.

VALUABLE.—The recent bill before Congress granting aid for the construction of a railroad from the Columbia river to Puget Sound, if passed will make the large tracts of coal and timber lands owned by the Puget Sound Homestead Association on the Skookum Chuck and Newaukum very valuable.

A few shares only remain untaken and can be had at the office of the Secretary or of Mr Conklin, Canvassing Agent.

REMOVAL.—J. W. Campbell has removed his new Patent Bed Bottom manufactory to Messrs Jenson & Rethlefsen's Cabinet and Carpenter shop southeast corner of Morrison and Fourth streets. Although but recently introduced the Minnesota Bed Bottom is fast coming into general use and is giving general satisfaction. Come and see it. j20d1m

The Living Machine.

Injure the main spring of a watch and every portion of the works becomes disordered. The human stomach is to the human system what that elastic piece of metal is to a chronometer. It influences the action of the other organs and controls to a certain extent the whole living machine. The comparison may be carried further, for as the weakness or other imperfections of the main spring is indicated on the face of the timepiece, so also is the weakness or other disorder of the stomach betrayed by the face of the invalid. The complexion is sallow or faded, the eyes are deficient in luster and intelligence and there is a worn, anxious expression in the whole countenance which tell as plainly as written words could do, that the great nourishing organ whose office it is to minister to the wants of the body, and to sustain and renew all its parts, is not performing its duty. It requires renovating and regulating, and to accomplish this end Hostetter's Stomach Bitters may be truly said to be the one thing needful. The broken main spring of a watch may be replaced by a new one, but the stomach can only be repaired and strengthened, and this is one of the objects of the famous vegetable restorative which for eighteen years has been waging a successful contest with dyspepsia in all climates. As a specific for indigestion it stands alone. When the resources of the pharmacopœia have been exhausted, without, at best, doing more than mitigating the complaint, a course of this wholesome and palatable, yet powerful stomachic effects a perfect and permanent cure. In all cases of dyspepsia the liver is more or less disordered and upon this important gland as well as upon the stomach and bowels, the Bitters act with singular distinctness, regulating and re-invigorating every secretive and assimilating organ on which bodily and mental health depend.

olution of the Indian Problem

of General Parker's Report that it the most important and valuable In cuments of its kind ever presented but not extravagant praise Its clear ethod, positiveness, wealth of infor accuracy, and fertility of suggestion it to the highest rank among State pa nting of this topic In these respects sustains the reputation reaped by its rom the Rawlins address before the of the Army of the Tennessee and, e would not pretend that the well ndian origin of General Parker has m special facilities over other officers ing of the precise matter now put un charge, it has evidently, at least, stir sympathies, and imbued him with of responsibility which will prove s, of the greatest national value in the solution of the Indian problem

General Parker does, is to announce efinite change in our Indian policy has ected, to describe exactly in what that consists, to exhibit its first fruits, to horoscope of its future, and to make ions for so modifying and moulding icy as to secure the earliest, fullest st satisfactory results The measures h we are indebted for what he shows contestibly an improved condition in affairs, are the concentration of the upon suitable reservations and the of means for engaging them in agri and mechanical pursuits, and for their on and moral training In other words, ibutes the good results thus far at mainly to the peace policy of Christian tion—or the "Quaker policy," as it is ptuously styled by some of the relent ocheman of the far West. But it must upposed that the Commissioner ranges in opposition to the punishment by ny of Indian depredations On the y, he distinctly supports, defends and our recent military intervention For e, he commends the penalties inflicted Cheyenes and Arapahoes who attacked lers on the Republican, Smoky Hill and Rivers in May and June last, and pro s them "active and severe measures have resulted in the destruction of and compelled others to surrender or [illegible] on the reserva And he takes the same view of the [illegible] against the Sioux, the Pie he Apaches and Navajoes, the Kiowas [illegible] the Kickapoos and others. [illegible], that though there een hostilities by bands, there has been ly tribes. [illegible] reservations, the Commissioner [illegible] that the success achieved with who have long been on them suffi [illegible] dicates the system, makes several note [illegible] commendations, of which perhaps ost important is that reservations be ed for the wild and roving tribes in New , Arizona and Nevada. How far this al can be carried into practical effect, , is a question Not, of course, that ervations cannot be set apart, but that he extremely difficult to get the Indians hem. It is desirable, undoubtedly, to d, [illegible] these reservations for the [illegible], but the s [illegible] are nomadic, intracta [illegible], almost hopelessly given over to r and bloodshed, and even the great e which can be got by compacts with s lost with them, since they have little [illegible] of importance. An of high [illegible], who once reported on s for this state of affairs, thought, af [illegible] has "no remedy" except [illegible] "This" is a specific we are not yet to try, but at least we must try pa It is also possible that as these tribes, ng the New Mexican Navajoes have ties with the Government, and would ided for by Congress, at present, this on itself might attract them to reserva ral Parker shows that the famous Com of nine, selected by the President [illegible] men eminent for their intelli and philanthropy" to disburse the fund 00,000, did good service and wisely dis d this large sum. He thinks that a countergent fund "should also be [illegible] for use among wild Indians, ans not provided for by treaty stipula a recommendation which, we should [illegible] with opposition. He praises agents of the Society of Friends, with caution, not having fully tested he declares with palpable justice that t least, "a perfect understanding" m reached between civil and military respecting their relative rights and or the treaty system, General Parker y recommends its abolition. He tells t we have often insisted upon in these s, that the very idea of a treaty is de and absurd. Does a guardian make a with his ward? Treaties are for sov Powers, not for a Government and its s. What have treaties done for the In By them he has become "falsely im ," says General Parker, "with the no national independence" It is time, that this idea should be dispelled and he Government should cease its cruel thus dealing with its helpless and ig wards." But, meanwhile the Commis recommends that existing treaties be y and faithfully executed, so that In ay not have cause of complaint or rea violate their obligations by acts of vio nd robbery.

om the Albany (N. Y.) Journal, Feb 5]

World has spasmodic attacks of the travagant affection for the negro Its tes are a curious medley. Yesterday ome of a very peculiar character It he hour of triumph" of the Republi ty, in the full accomplishment of the reconstruction, including "the device ersal suffrage." With this paean of o its political opponents, it wailed a s prophecy that the "device" afore ll return to plague its inventors It anted the present secure possession of publican party for some years in the ncy, the Senate and the Supreme and congratulated the dusky object of tions upon the fact that this renders it n that negro suffrage is to prevail in th until after the next Presidential , and it is quite certain that the Dem party will not make that an issue in national canvass" No thanks to the acy for this, it is true, as its dogared but then ought not the "ignorant "to be profoundly grateful to the Dem party for conceding that which it can vent, by all its acts of rescision of the nan's magna charta, the Fifteenth ent?

World proceeds to pour into the ears of k-lipped' 'long-heeled' inamorata, ughness it has not tired of depicting any years, the failure of her first love, publican party, in ability to longer and protect her The Republican par e view of this new wooer who now th all the intensity he formerly hated, all its advantages and comeliness It longer feed, clothe and protect through en's Bureaus, it cannot raise millions ation expenses out of its own pockets o longer "lure the negroes by rations tery, it will never again carry a n State, it is old decrepid, poor, for saken, kick it out.

complishments of the new lover the atic party, are hymned by the World most musical and amorous of strains ll "the wealth intelligence, respecta d political skill in the South, and he money liberally and in return 'ex e influence of debtors over creditors.

Growing more warm in its ardor, the World compliments the object of its affection with being "religious and emotional after a "rude fashion" and promises "liberal contribu tions to religious objects and purposes by that means to win her heart Getting quite intoxicated it seizes the black palm and throws its arms around the waist of its charmer declares [illegible] of excitement and a great lover of good cheer promises that elections shall be made festive and gay, barbe cues shall be held at which fat oxen shall be roasted whole and liquors poured out in profusion and in amount parts assigned to the negroes in conducting such jovialities And then it turns aside with a leer to say that with "such jovialities there will be little difficulty in controlling negro votes, and stoops down lowly and whispers in the ear of her it seeks to win, that only the Demo cratic party can make a great and captivat ing display in this kind of electioneering fes tivity

The closeness of the contact seems to have revived the old feeling of repugnance, and, stopping the bacchanalian song, the World starts back with the declaration that "the mass of negroes are so grossly ignorant that they are unfit to be trusted with the ballot" And yet it does not hesitate to coquet with this ignorance amid all its filth! Notwithstand ing their "besotten" condition, however the World says the negroes are intelligent enough to understand the difference between free trade and protection We suppose it must be the intention to send as missionary among them the astute Helderberg statesman, who proposes to enlighten all mankind upon the vexed subject If the negroes, by any process can be induced to bring to bear their intelli gent judgments, to the settlement of the ques tions which have exhausted the brains of our Adam Smiths, Gladstones, Careys and Wellses, we shall consider the love song of the World sung to some purpose and its fling at their ig norance cruelly unjust

INEBRIATED CHICKENS —The Memphis Ap peal says

We learn that a singular and very amusing accident happened to the chickens of a Mrs Hamilton, near Petersville, Tipton county, Tennessee, a few days ago Her husband bought a bottle of brandy cherries After eating the cherries, the seeds were thrown out, which the chickens ate greedily In a short time Mrs Hamilton found that her chickens were all dead. She told the old ne gro woman that she might pick the chickens and put the feathers in her bed, which she did readily.

After picking off the feathers, she carried out the chickens and threw them away Night came on; Mrs. Hamilton was sorely grieved at her loss. Sleep soon swept away her troubles. At early dawn she was alarmed at hearing the old chanticleer crowing loudly, and the hens cackling Judge her surprise when, opening the door and looking out, she saw every hen and rooster, young and old, grave and gay, marching around, eyeing each other with suspicion, many of them entirely naked, while only a few of them had tail and wing feathers The cherry seeds made them "dead drunk."

Eastern Markets.

[REPORTED BY MAIL.]

Since the Pacific railroad has so cheapened transporta tion that Eastern dealers are able to open up trade with our neighboring territories where California and Oregon have heretofore been the only traders, it becomes in teresting to know the general condition of business of all sorts at the East, and especially the range of prices of such things as are staples here We give commercial dates from Boston to Feb 3d, and Chicago to Feb 4th, [illegible] In the former market we find [illegible] which may be of interest for the purposes of comparison

BOSTON, Feb 2 —Working oxen [illegible] Steers and slim oxen, $30@152, or when well matched, a little above their value as beef Milch cows—slim to fair $30 @$85; good to extra, $65@85; heifers and farrow cows, $30@50.

The demand for Eastern cattle for feeding and for work is not as good as it has been, and the trade at the "Eastern yard" is not as good this week as it has been for some time past, and the Maine drovers are not pleased by the change. Cattle, after all, are relatively higher than most other farm crops or market goods of most kinds

Northern sheep and lambs $3@7 00 per head or 5 to 8c per lb. Western 5@8 per lb

CHICAGO, Feb 4 —The Chicago Republican of the 5th reports the money market as quiet and much easier than during the early weeks of winter Trade, however is light, as seems to be the case at all points heard from While the currency and tariff questions remain open, this state of things is likely to continue Rate of interest at the banks, 10 per cent. per annum. How many thousands of persons, both male and fe male, are there who are suffering out a miserable exist ence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system! Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his special study for years and who is certain to cure them as in several cases without mer cury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pre tended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

What the Hon W T Ballou says about the "King of Pain"

SAN FRANCISCO Dec 7 1869

Dr J J McBride—Having suffered with sciatic rheu matism some months I was induced to use your "King of Pain" I take pleasure in recommending it to those afflicted with rheumatism I know of several cases of neuralgia that have been cured by using it
W T BALLOU, of Elko Nevada

Card from Harbor Master

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec 2, 1869

To Dr McBride—This is to certify that I have been troubled with neuralgia in my right arm and hand for the past three months, and although I have had medical advice and tried a number of remedies none has relieved me until I tried Dr McBride's King of Pain, which has done me more good than all the other remedies I have tried. A CARD.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct 16, 1869.

DR McBRIDE—My Dear Sir For the last six or sev en years I have been afflicted with rheumatic pains, from my knees down, embracing all the joints of ankle and toes These pains have come upon me periodically ev ery year, about this season of the year My knees and ankles, and toe joints, and my wrists and finger joints would swell and leave me in the most agonizing pain, known only to those who have suffered from this dread malady These pains would continue for a period of from three to four months every year, and they have been regular, unfailing annual visitors I have been ac customed to apply for relief to the best doctors of San Francisco, and have not failed to use all the popular rem edies known to the public I would sometimes receive temporary relief, after long continued application, but it would never fail to return in a few days with increased severity.

About two weeks ago, while my pains were upon me, I saw you at the corner of one of our streets, and heard what you said about your "King of Pain" I confess that I listened to you with deep distrust indeed, I may say that I did not believe your statements still I thought I, "it's only a dollar and I'll patronize the humbug" one dollar's worth I bought a bottle and tried it first on my knee which was fearfully swollen, and from which I suffered very severely The second night I tried it again, and my dear Doctor you can judge of my surprise ecstacy and delight, altogether, when I found on rising the second morning that my pains were entirely gone and the swelling entirely disappeared My knee joints were as supple as when I was young I actually danced with delight, much to the amusement of my friends who had been in the habit of regarding me as a decrepid old rheumatic It has now been two weeks, and I have not felt the least symptom of return I believe I am cured and I feel so grateful to you that I offer you this state ment, verified by my oath, to be used by you in whatever way you may think proper and I feel it a duty to let others similarly afflicted know where they can find relief

I am yours very truly, RAPHAEL LOORAYSE

State of California city and county of San Francisco On this 16th day of October 1869, personally appeared be fore me a Justice of the Peace in and for the city and county of San Francisco aforesaid, Raphael Looraysse known to me to be the person who signed the foregoing letter and who being by me duly sworn deposes and says the contents thereof are true

T W TALIAFERRO Justice of the Peace

TO THE PUBLIC

Grateful for the eminent services of Dr J J McBride, I cheerfully make a statement of the following facts For twelve months I had suffered from prostration of my nervous system resulting in partial paralysis and almost total loss of sight. A score of physicians had abandoned my case as hopelessly incurable, I had even heard my days numbered by doctors and friends In the agonies of my neuralgic pain I sought the great "King of Pain," Under that benign influence, in one-half hour I had ob tained more relief than I had known for long weary months My sight was so much restored that I could read print although I had needed a guide to find Dr McBride's office an hour before Before leaving him I had regained the use of my almost palsied limbs and seemingly my strength had returned while all the aches and pains my constant companions were dissipa ted and gone It is now ten days since I left him [illegible] with Dr McBride and I can say [illegible] that I am [illegible] been in so little time My eyesight is most perfectly regained my whole physical system corrected and im proved health

My residence is in Reading [illegible] business at [illegible] County [illegible] in this city where I will willingly vouch in person for the truth of the foregoing to any one interested
